

District Swimming Gala 2007

The Beavers (more than ever this year) had a great time splashing away in the recreational pool, with all surviving to do it all again next year. I would like to thank all of my team for their great work, especially Mary Power for looking after the Beavers, and our guest PA system supplier and announcer, Sam Wright from Eastcote, all of whom made this a very successful evening yet again. My great thanks of course go to all the competitors and their managers without whom this would not have been possible. I look forward to seeing you all again next year, and let's keep on increasing the numbers.
